Sizing Guidelines

In terms of sweatshirts, cardigans and polo's the Age size is normally pretty accurate, and children tend to be the next age group up once a size no longer fits e.g.7/8 then 9/10. Similarly jackets knitwear and blazers tend to be next size up.

Sizing for P1 – the majority of children are Age 5/6 unless they are petite in which case Age $\frac{3}{4}$. Only in exceptional circumstance would you be age 7/8. If your child wears items at nursery use advise at the top on sizing.

Knitwear tends to be more fitted and so the sizing guide would be: majority of children would be 26" or 28" with petite children being 24"

P1 blazers tend to be size 24" with petite children being 22"

Winter Jackets tend to be on the large size so typically most P1's are Age $\frac{3}{4}$ with some age 5/6.

PE tops are generous so most children are 5/6, again petite would be $\frac{3}{4}$.
